Primary School Supplementary Forms

If you have a primary school supplementary form for St. Mary's CE Primary School, from Monday 2nd November 2020, please place your form in a sealed envelope and post through the door of St. Mary's Vicarage (18 Rushcroft Road). The forms will then go into isolation for at least 72 hours before being touched. Please ensure that all forms are posted through the vicarage door on or before Tuesday 17th November 2020. We will arrange for them to be collected in a COVID secure way in the 1st week of December, in time for them to be handed in at St. Mary's CE School

Wednesday morning Eucharist at St. James'

St. James' have re-started their Wednesday morning Eucharist service at 10.00am in St. James Church. Like all services at the moment, this is a simple, said service with the usual COVID requirements (face mask, use of hand gel, social distancing, limits on numbers attending etc.) in place. St. James' Risk Assessment is available to view on our website.

APCM

Our Annual Parochial Church Meeting, postponed from May 2020, took place recently. Thank you to all who came to church to attend. At the Meeting of Parishioners, Susanne Morris was elected for another term of office (1 year) as Church Warden. In the APCM, Claire Benson, Harry Batey, Liz Footitt and Kath Sanderson were elected for another term of office (3 years) to the PCC. We still have one vacancy on the PCC, one vacancy for Church Warden and four vacancies for Deanery Synod (who also sit on our PCC). If you are interested in any of these vacancies, please speak to Susanne. We still have copies of the Annual Report – please take one from the table at the back of church if you, or someone you know, would like one

Parish Contacts

Vicar - Please note that we are currently in an interregnum. Any queries relating to St Mary's should be directed to our Church Warden.
